

- WHEREAS, it is important for the people of Gaston County and its municipalities to know and understand the problems, duties, and responsibilities of our law enforcement officers and agencies. We applaud the members of those agencies for recognizing their duty to serve the people by safeguarding life and property, by protecting people against violence and disorder, and by protecting the innocent against deception and the weak against oppression or intimidation; and,
- WHEREAS, our nation, more than ever, depends upon local law enforcement as our first line of defense. The men and women of these agencies give of themselves day in and day out to preserve our homeland security; and,
- WHEREAS, in 2022, 245 peace officers across the nation and 9 from North Carolina alone died in the line of duty; and,
- WHEREAS, the members of law enforcement agencies of Gaston County and its municipalities play a vital role in safeguarding the rights and freedom of our local citizens; and,
- WHEREAS, we join law enforcement officers nationwide in honoring their fallen comrades and urge Gaston County citizens to commemorate law enforcement officers, past and present.
- NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Gaston County Board of Commissioners proclaims May 7-13, 2023 as Law Enforcement Week in Gaston County and May 10, 2023 as

PEACE OFFICER'S MEMORIAL DAY

and urges the citizens of Gaston County to recognize and appreciate the contributions made by their local law enforcement officers for handling the difficult situations they encounter on a daily basis.

BACKGROUND

National Peace Officer's Week is held annually during the month of May to honor all peace officer's throughout the nation. Established by a joint resolution of Congress in 1962, National Peace Officer's Week pays special recognition to those law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty for the safety and protection of others and to those that continue to serve daily. The Gaston County Chief's Association has designated May 7-13, 2023 as Law Enforcement Week in Gaston County and designates May 10, 2023 as Peace Officer's Memorial Day.
