BACKGROUND

The North Carolina Governor's Crime Commission administer federal and state grants relating to criminal justice improvement, crime victim services and juvenile justice.

The Family Justice Center (FJC) has been awarded $1,128,495 over two years with $623,023 budgeted for the first year and $505,472 for the second year. The grant is entering year 2. The FJC provides one location where victims can access supportive resources and promotes a coordinated community response to victims of abuse and violence, improve service delivery, and decrease domestic violence.
